There were quite a number among the big crowd present who expressed the opinion that if the umpire had decided his close decisions squarely, that the German Prince would have gained a decided victory over his opponents. GROVER CLEVELAND, the grand old man of Democracy and the only living ex-President of the United States, is passing slowly but surely from the stage of action. Every American citizen should honor and respect Mr. CLEVE-LAND for his honesty and integrity of purpose. He is an able, but was often a misguided statesman. It is the irony of fate that his enemies are nearly all in his own party. That's the reason he should be loved for the enemies he has made.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

We approve the policies and commend the ability, integrity and courage of President Roosevelt and his administration, and without expressing a preference for any candinational convention for president of one in full accord with these policies out in the interests of all the people.

We demand that all elections shall be honestly conducted and declare that the cause of good government and the future happiness and welfare of the people of Kentucky is sion of all abuses and crimes against an honest ballot, that have so unfortunately disgraced our state under Democratic rule, depriving the people of their rightful heritage-representative government.

The law for registration certificates imposed on the state by the Democratic party for immoral political purwhereby votes in Kentucky have become negotiable instruments, passing by delivery, ought to be re-

3. The fudiciary of the state, in both the circuit and appellate courts. should be chosen on non-partisan grounds and the continuance in office of faithful judicial public servants should be determined by no other qualification than fitness.

4. There should be complete publicity concerning the expenditure of money for political campaigns and a law should be passed providing for an accounting by candidates and campaign managers of all sums of money ollected for political purposes.

5. We demand the redistricting of Kentucky in legislative, senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, which shall give equal representation and equal voting power to every citizen of every district in conformity with the plain requirements of the Constitution, and not as at present, in flagrant violation thereof.

6. There should be prompt and efficient enforcement of the criminal laws of every kind, and at all times, but especially at this time do we call for the rigid enforcement of the law against those forms of crimes which under the recent administration of justice, in many communities, have gone practically unpunished. Election thieves, gamblers, pool-room operators and others who commit crimes in the interest of those controlling the local administration of some of our cities and counties, should be punished, and the juries should be so selected as to prevent the packing of juries for the purpose of securing verdicts in accord ance with the wishes of those in whose hands the selection of the juries is placed, or under whose control and direction they are selected.

7. We demand that the books, vouchers and accounts of all municipalities, all public officers and public institutions, and of all corporations in which a city of the state owns the majority interest, either directly or through subordinate corporations, trustees or commissioners, shall be open to inspection and investigation at all times by any citizen and shall be regularly audited and the results published by an independent accountant, who shall not be eligible to re-examine such books, vouchers or accounts twice in succession.

8. We demand a reform in the management of our public eleemosynary and penal institutions, to the end that they shall be operated by bi-partisan boards, upon proper business principles, and their inmates treated humanely.

9. We favor the enactment and enforcement of a uniform local option law with the county as the governing unit.

10. We demand that the public schools of the state shall be taken and kept entirely out of politics and that the interests and welfare of the children shall have first consideration in all public school matters.

We call for better schools and school houses, for longer school terms in the country and better pay for the teachers, and that elections for school trustees be had on different days from other elections.

11. We favor amendments to state laws permitting and encouraging joint nomination of the same candidate by the different parties.

12. We condemn the law, passed for immoral political purposes, creating the racing commission in Kentucky and demand its repeal.

13. We condemn the enactment by the Democratic party of a large number of obnoxious tax laws and the creation of useless officers as the reward of partisan service, and we promise, if given power, to repeal all such laws and reduce the taxes to the lowest possible rate consistent with an efficient administration of the state government.

Conclusion.

For years past the legislation enacted by the Democratic party and dictated by certain of its leaders, has not been for the benefit of the citizen, but of the officeholder. The chief aim of such legislation has been the continued holding of office, and the creation of new officers to be traded in as rewards for party service.

The citizen is at least realizing, as never before, that the administration of public affairs is a business that comes close home to him; that such husiness must be honestly and efficiently conducted and that his ballot should not be cast as a matter of sentiment, but for that candidate or that party which shows the highest capacTHINGS ARE GENERALLY DULL IN THE

CALEB POWERS

Mr. Willson Emphatically States His Position In Answer to Mr. Hager's Question.

Will Guarantee Powers Fair Trial.

"I will not dip the good old Republican ship into the mire of dirty politics by allowing myself to be dragged into the Powers controversy in this campaign for good government in Kentucky," resolutely and emphatically declared Augustus E. Willson, the Republican nominee for governor, in his speech at Barbourville, to a crowd estimated at 3,000 persons, all neighbors and town folk of Caleb Powers, and all keyed up to the highest tension of expectancy as to what Mr. Willso would say in reply to Mr. Hager's quotation propounded at Lexington.

"All that I can promise you," he added, "is that if I am elected governor of Kentucky Mr. Powers will have a fair and honest trial before a fair and impartial judge and a non-partisan jury, and this applies to all men under indictment in connection with the Goebel affair, who will come back to Kentucky for trial when I send for "All of these men will have a fair trial if it is the last act of my life, and in order that there may be no charges of favoritism made, they will be tried before a Democratic judge if I find that he is the best man fitted to perform this important service to the state.

"Mr. Hager, in his speech at Lexington, said that he would not pardon Mr. Powers. I won't promise you that it fitting for any lawyer to tell the people what he will do in advance of a trial and record. If he makes such about that time o'day. a promise he will appeal only to the unworthy passions of men.

"Mr. Hager, in the miserable rancor of party hatred has seen fit to drag the matter into this campaign, and I throw it back into his teeth and resent the implication that I or the Republican party would release Mr. Powers without a fair trial and a fair record of the case. And we have the right to assume that he has not had a fair trial because a Democratic court of appeals has had their say so.

"If you elect me governor I pledge you to observe my oath of office, the Constitution and the law as becomes an officer of the law, a gentleman and Kentuckian. No man may ask me if I will pardon him if he is guilty. I am a full grown man, no child, and have the nerve to say right here before you just what I will do and no

MR. HAGER'S PLATFORM

In his opening speech at Lexington Julice Hager said:

"I do not, therefore, come before you with a perfunctory platform, formu-Is tod by a few leaders and languidly adopted, without debate, by a meagerly attended convention, but with one that has been made and approved as their own, by the direct untrammeled votes of thousands of my fellow-Democrats for whose consideration it was presented." In other words, this is the official platform of the Democratic party and its candidate. This being true, we dethis platform contains eleven planks and not a word is said concerning the temperance question, which is the parman. Why does he not endorse the cause of temperance in his platform? In striking contrast, we call attention to the utterance in the Republican platform

"We favor the enactment and enforcement of a uniform local option law, with the county as the governing unit."

It is apparent that Hager is attempting to carry water on both shoulders. He announces that personally he is in favor of temperance. This is done to catch the temperance vote. He then announces his party platform, that he made himself, and in which there is not a syllable about temperance. This is done to catch the liquor

HALL-STRUVE.

Maysville society was surprised, indeed, and the watchful reporters and gossips scooped!

Mr. James H. Hall and Miss Eulainne Struve were united in marriage July 25th, 1907, by the Rev. Gervaise Roughton, Pastor of Wesley Chapel in Cincinnati.

Mr. Hall and his charming bride have been enjoying their honeymoon away from Maysville and the announcement of their marriage last evening came as a great surprise to Maysville-

It is said the bridal couple will return Friday and take up their abode in the beautiful Hall residence in West Third street.

The groom is too well known to need an introduction in a community where he was born, raised and has spent his life. He is now at the head of the James H. Hall Plow Works, and is one of the city's progressive business men.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Felix K. Struve, and sire to call attention to the fact that is a graduate of this year's Commencement of Sovereign Grand Lodge in Session-At Denver in 1908.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 15th, 1907. The Public Ledger: This Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows is a great gathering of prominent American citizens drawing upon all callings in life's activities for representatives. Not only are there American's but her outlying possessions as well as Canada and her provinces. The annual session will begin tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and will continue in session until Saturday at noon. when it will adjourn until the third Monday in September, 1908. I think I see the shadow of Denver, Col., arising which will beckon the body to the middle West for that session. Representative Goudy, one of the most astute politicians in Colorado and a few years ago a formidable candidate for U. S. Senate, is marshalling the forces and booming Denver and it seems from an early view that that city will sweep away all opposition and gain the honored prize. The Kentucky Delegation is a strong one, composed of Hon. Milton J. Durham, Past Grand Sire, of Lexington, Claude Buckley of PeeWee Valley, J. Witt Potter, a Banker of Bowling Green, Judge John Gaunt, the L. and N. Attorney, from Louisville, and Hon. William H. Cox, whom we all know so well. I am struck with the sentiment of this whole Grand Body in its solicitude for the election of Mr. Cox. The Southern Democrats particularly, who know him so well and have throw away party lines were they in position to vote for him. They know the man, they know that in elevating him to office the whole people would be benefited and affairs administered regardless of any spirit contrary to good government. Take the Kentucky delegation named and not a man will vote against Cox. "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.
